A captivating read from first page to last
Pat Swanson (New Zealand Champion Diver)

Sean has emigrated from Zimbabwe to New Zealand, with his mother, after the death of his father. He is finding it hard to fit in at school, cope with his grief and his homesickness.

He becomes mates with a boy in his class, Mason, who is a mad keen spearo and gradually becomes involved with his family. He learns all about free diving and spear fishing and competes with the family in spear fishing competitions. One accident and he is thrust into the front line of the competition – it is all up to him.

Katy struggles with anxiety and compulsive behaviour disorders. She self-harms and is seeing a counsellor. When she starts dating it only increases her anxieties. Then her parents hear her Yiayia (grandmother) is ill in Greece and maybe dying. The family decide to visit. Reluctant at first Katy eventually decides to embrace the trip as a way to learn about her Greek family but the visit uncovers some dark family secrets.

A novel that explores the fragility of families, and the damage that can be wrought when unresolved issues of one generation shape the lives of the next. Also a story about hope, and the ability of families to survive and heal damaged relationships.

WHITE MOKO stories from my life

Tim Tipene

9780995106789 | $34:00 | 00PP | TRPB | TN | 16+ FICTION

A memoir from award-winning writer and inspirational speaker Tim Tipene.

Tim founded the Warrior Kids programme 22 years ago. Himself the product of rape, he spent a miserable childhood in which he was abused by both his birth and foster families.

His courses now empower families and children and this memoir is a recollection of his life, raised in violence, following on from a junior collection published last year, Mrs Battleship.

It is a tribute especially to the few teachers who acted at different times to protect him, as well as his discovery that not everyone endured what he did. This is funny, sad, poignant and telling. Tim has found jewels of wisdom and love in a world that had no place for him.

MRS BATTLESHIP

Tim Tipene

9780995106796 | $22.00 | 76PP | PB | TN | 7+ BIOGRAPHY

These 7 stories are taken from the author's primary school years. They are sometimes humorous, but also illuminating. They document some memories and the fear he lived with – for example, how it was a lightbulb moment when he realised not all children were hit as he was.

There are some teachers he encountered along the way who changed his life. Mrs Battleship is a tribute to the few people, especially teachers, who acted at different times to protect him and champion him.

His stories are funny, sad, poignant and telling. Tim has found jewels of wisdom and love in a world that had no place for him.

Ngaere Roberts / Christine Dale

9780473397067 | $20.00 | 24PP | PB | 0-4+ NON-FICTION

Ko Kiwi Mā contains high definition images which make it an ideal addition to the first focus style books available for babies – this one makes use of indigenous fauna and introduces numeracy.

Includes a chart of numbers in words, images and numerals ready for use in early learning centres and new entrant classes.

Text in te reo Māori only.

OF COURSE YOU CAN

Karen Hinge / Nicky Sievert

9780473421854 | $30.00 | 32PP | PB | TN | 4-7 FICTION

A bilingual story about a boy who is nervous about starting school. His classmates are welcoming and every time he thinks he can't join in, because he is in a wheelchair, the children find ways for him to take part.

This book is about kindness, inclusion and finding positive solutions to challenges.
